3 Week-Long Projects

Coding:

The benefits of coding knowledge affect the very personality and mental state of children. Some of these advantages include:

- Boosting creativity - coding demands repeated experimentation. The process of trial and error encourages children to use creativity.
- Better math skills - coding mainly involves visualizing abstract concepts that can be applied to mathematical problem-solving. This, in turn, helps kids improve their math skills and use them in real-life situations.
- Builds confidence in problem-solving - since coding often involves making mistakes until you can get it right, children will learn that there's always more than one way to complete any task.
- Enhances academic writing performance - coding supports planning and organizing skills,. Kids will be able to put their thoughts in order and can improve their writing skills.

Robotics LEGO:

Robotics is a fun, engaging way to teach children about engineering, maths, teamwork, perseverance, patience and leadership skills.

Robotics can assist children in a variety of areas, both personal and intellectual. Robotics can also increase their social skills, allowing them to talk more effectively, as well as their ability to work as a team. They also become more observant, creative, and critical thinkers.

Robotics is engaging and enjoyable for children, and it does not confine them to a classroom. With the help of robotic learning, children can learn a lot about themselves and the world.. Children can use robotics to help them create their future.
